

Rafał Kos

Solicitor, Doctor of Law (Jagiellonian University), he studied international business law at UC Davies (California), he completed post-graduate studies in American business law at CUA Columbus School of Law (Washington, DC). Vice-President of the Arbitration Court at Konfederacja Lewiatan in Warsaw. Appointed Permanent Arbitrator and Conciliator of the Amicable Court at the General Prosecutor's Office of the Republic of Poland (since 2020). Member of the Arbitration Committee of the Supreme Bar Council (since 2015) and of the Board of Visitors of CUA Law (since 2017). Deputy Chair of the Supervisory Board of PFR TFI (since 2018).

An expert of the Sejm (lower chamber of Parliament) Justice and Human Rights Committee with respect to the bill concerning the pursuit of claims in group proceedings (2009), member of the Team for amending the Bankruptcy and Recovery Law (2012), the Team for systemic solutions for the amicable settlement of business disputes, facilitating the performance of business activities under the Minister of Economy (2013) and the Team for Business Law under the Minister of Development (2015). Currently a member of the Ownership Supervision Reform Committee and the teams of experts of the Minister of State Assets: for increasing the effectiveness of supervisory boards and for business concern law (2020). Recommended as an expert in litigation and arbitration, among others, by Who's Who Legal, Chambers and Partners, and the Rzeczpospolita daily.