3.2.5. Treasury segment

The activities of the Bank in the treasury segment in the 4th quarter of 2007 were determined by the following factors:

- intensive sell out of treasury securities (as a result of higher inflation rate and another wave of increased credit and liquidity risk stemming from crisis on the American market of subprime loans),
- information on salaries/wages and inflation on domestic market which translated into expectations of increasing interest rates by the Monetary Policy Council,
- increase in the profitability of 2-year bonds by 90 base points, 5-year bonds – by 50 base points and 10-year bonds – by 25 base points ,
- higher liquidity risk, which translated into, among others, higher rates on the inter-bank markets.

The result of the treasury segment decreased by PLN 52.7 million, i.e. 44.4% y/y with a 38.2% decrease in segment assets and 56.1% decrease in segment liabilities, calculated on a year-to-year basis.

Segment's net result share in total net result

- increase, compared to the 3rd quarter of 2007, in the value of turnover on the market of treasury securities (i.e. by over 10%),
- dynamic increase in the sales of financial instruments to individual and corporate clients of the Bank,
- compared to the 4th quarter of 2006, the value of SPOT and forward transactions made increased by 70%, while the value of transactions made with the use of derivative financial instruments – nearly tenfold,
- entering into 2 agreements for the issuance of non-treasury debt securities to corporate entities with a total issue value of PLN 530 million and 11 agreements for the issuance of municipal bonds with a total issue value of PLN 425 million.

3.2.6. Investment Segment

Investing activities in the 4th quarter of 2007 were determined by the continued stock exchange crisis. In the 4th quarter of 2007, the Bank recorded a turnover of PLN 6.4 billion on the share market, which is PLN 0.3 billion less than in the 3rd quarter of 2007 (5.9% share in this market).

4.3 EXTERNAL CONDITIONS

Macroeconomic factors

In the 4th quarter of 2007, real economy data indicate some slow down in the economic growth compared to the 3rd quarter of 2007 (6.4% y/y), with continued stimulating effect of domestic demand and sustained negative share of net export.

In the 4th quarter of 2007, labour market showed positive effects of favourable economic conditions, higher inflow of EU funds for the activation of unemployed and work emigration; these resulted in a similar to the prior year decrease in the registered unemployment rate, which in November was 11.2%; also, further increase in the annual dynamics of employment rate in private sector was observed.

Inflation rate measured using the Consumer Price Index showed a dynamic growth in the 4th quarter of 2007 and reached the level of 4.0% y/y in December 2007 compared to 2.3% y/y in September 2007, while the average quarterly inflation rate rose to 3.5% y/y from 2.0% y/y in the 3rd quarter of 2007, which resulted mainly from high dynamics of food and fuels prices.

In the 4th quarter of 2007, upward trend in deposits accelerated, especially in the area of household deposits, which increased by 10% y/y compared to 6.8% y/y at the end of September. This was the result of lower inflow of funds to investment funds due to deteriorating conditions on the share market and noticeable increase in disposable income of households. Corporate deposits increased by approximately 14.3% y/y compared to 19.4% at the end of the 3rd quarter of 2007.

In the 4th quarter of 2007, a slight slow down was recorded in the highly dynamic increase in loans and advances, which was due to lower interest in housing loans. Household loans increased by 38% y/y, while corporate loans – by 24% y/y;

The Monetary Policy Council increased in November (for the fourth time in 2007) the NBP interest rates by 25 base points and this caused that at year end the NBP reference rate was 5.0%.

At the same time, in the 3rd quarter of 2007 the results of the PKO BP SA Group were affected by certain macroeconomic conditions in Ukraine, where the subsidiary of PKO BP SA – KREDOBANK SA, operates. The conditions referred to above are, among others, continued favourable economic conditions in the real economy area with simultaneous very high growth in inflation rate to 16.6% y/y, from 14.4% in the 3rd quarter of 2007 (mainly as a result of increases in food prices), sustained high dynamics in loans and deposits (approx. 75% y/y for loans and almost 50% y/y for deposits) and stabilised Exchange rate of Ukrainian Hryvna at UAH/USD 5.05 as a result of the Central Bank of Ukraine's policy of interventions in currency market.

Regulatory factors

In the 4th quarter of 2007, the financial and organizational conditions of the PKO BP SA Group were shaped by the following new regulatory solutions:

- Ruling of the European Commission No. 1287/2006 dated 10 August 2006 implementing execution measures for Directive No. 2004/39/WE (the "MiFID Directive") imposing as of 1 November 2007 new requirements, among others, information, reporting and client-segmentation requirements, on insurance and investment companies, as well as the TFI management companies dealing with pension funds, on brokerage houses and banks managing securities portfolios.

- Decree of the Council of Ministers dated 6 November 2007 concerning information prospectus of open-end investment funds and open-end special investment funds as well as short-forms of such prospectuses. The Decree introduced the requirement to adjust the issue of above prospectuses and the short-form prospectuses to the requirements of the Decree by 31 May 2008. The underlying works commenced in the 4th quarter of 2007.

- Resolution No. 83/2007 of the Management Board of the National Bank of Ukraine requiring that Ukrainian banks create by 1 October 2007 their provisions in accordance with the following new regulations;

- Resolution No. 403/2007 of the Management Board of the National Bank of Ukraine concerning regulating the monetary-lending market, based on which banks were obligated, as of 20 November 2007, to create provisions from funds obtained from non-resident banks and non-resident financial organizations, which resulted in an increase in the amounts of commercial banks on loro account in the Central Bank of Ukraine, which will have a negative effect on the financial result for the year 2008.

In the 4th quarter of 2007, banks, brokerage houses and entities of mutual investment (i.e. mutual investment and pension funds) conducted intensive preparatory works to implement new capital adequacy requirements based on the New Capital Accord, which result from the national law and the EU directives. The Bank was gearing up to implement the SEPA system (for the single European payments area in euro), and the works included those relating to the realization of bank transfers using the new standards as of 28 January 2008.

Situation on the financial market

In the 4th quarter of 2007, the financial market saw an increase in the profitability of treasury securities, which ranged – depending on the maturity – from 20 to almost 90 base points for instruments with short maturity periods. The increase was due to further increase in NBP interest rates and to strengthening investor expectations that the cycle of tightening of monetary policy will continue. In addition, further growth in investor risk aversion, in response to the crisis on the market of financial instruments related to the American real estate market, caused that the profitability of Polish bonds increased despite lower profitability of American bonds, as they discounted the effects of loosening of monetary policy in the USA. At the same time, lower mutual trust between financial institutions resulted in limited liquidity of the inter-bank market, also the Polish market, and increased interest rates above the expected raises.

In the 4th quarter of 2007, Polish zloty appreciated against Euro by 5.1% (to PLN/EUR 3.58 at the end of December) and by approx. 8.7% against US dollar (to PLN/USD 2.44). In the 4th quarter of 2007, the decisive factor affecting the Polish zloty exchange rate continued to be the situation in international financial markets. Also, the important factor that contributed to the increase in the exchange rate of Polish zloty was the victory of Platforma Obywatelska in early Parliamentary election and expectations concerning increasing interest rates by the Monetary Policy Council.

- On 7 December 2007, the Bank signed with one of its clients ("the Client") agreements relating to issuance of bonds (agency and deposit agreement and dealer agreement) and an agreement for the bonds purchase. The agreements were signed by a consortium of seven banks, which will organize bonds issuance program with a value of up to PLN 6.2 billion. The bonds interest rate is based on market reference rates correlated with bonds maturity periods, payment of interest coupon or the period of calculation of discounting interest on bonds. The bonds issued as part of the program will not be secured. As part of the bonds purchase obligating agreement, the Bank will be required to purchase debt securities with a total value of up to PLN 500 million during the period of up to 18 months. The agreements do not provide for contractual penalties. The total value of agreements signed by the Bank with the Client and its subsidiaries during the last 12 months, as at the date of signing those agreements, was PLN 1,188 million. Signing bonds purchase obligating agreement causes that the criteria to report the fact of entering into a significant agreement have been met, as the total value of benefits resulting from agreements signed with the Client meets the requirements to report, as defined in paragraph 2 section 1 point 51) in connection with paragraph 2 section 2 of the Decree of the Minister of Finance dated 19 October 2005 regarding current and periodic information to be submitted by issuers of securities. The highest value agreement signed with the Client: the agreement obliging to acquire bonds, referred to above, is the highest value agreement signed by the Bank with the Client during the period shorter than 12 months, counted to the date of the above agreement, the total value of which meets the criteria referred to in paragraph 2 section 1 point 51) of the Decree of the Minister of Finance dated 19 October 2005.
- On 21 December 2007, the Bank signed Annex No. 3 („Annex”) to the agreement for the delivery and implementation of the Integrated IT System (ZSI) dated 18 August 2003 between PKO BP SA and Accenture Sp z o.o., Alnova Technologies Corporation S.L. and Asseco Poland S.A., operating as Consortium. The subject of this Annex is to extend the current scope of works related to the implementation of the ZSI, which are the consequence of taking up by the Bank the decision to increase functionalities of the information system being implemented. The Consortium's net remuneration for the works specified in the Annex will be USD 10.2 million. The Annex No. 3 provides that the mass implementation of the ZSI will be completed at the end of November 2008. The above agreement is a continuation of an earlier agreement, which was disclosed in the Share Issue

Prospectus, Annex No. 1 to the agreement disclosed in the Current Report No. 42/2004 and Annex No. 2 to this agreement disclosed in the Current Report No. 36/2007. During the last 12 months, the Bank concluded, as part of its regular cooperation with one of the Consortium's members, Asseco Poland S.A., agreements relating to information systems currently operational at the Bank. The total value of all those agreements does not meet the criteria of a significant agreement.
