The manner of voting by proxy

A shareholder may participate in the Extraordinary General Meeting and exercise their right to vote in person or by proxy.

Proxy powers to participate in the Extraordinary General Meeting and to exercise the right to vote must be conferred in writing or the electronic form.

Proxy powers conferred in writing or the electronic form should include: precise identification of the proxy and principal (specification of a given name and surname, the series and number of an identification card or a passport, the PESEL number – in respect of natural persons; and the firm (name), the registered office and the number of KRS or of another register – in respect of legal persons or other organisational units); the date of granting of the power of attorney and specification of its scope, and of the date of general meeting at which the proxy would be exercised; and specification whether the power of attorney is valid only on the opening date of the Extraordinary General Meeting or until its actual closing.

Proxy powers conferred in writing:

If the shareholder confers the proxy powers in writing, the proxy holder is required to do the following at the preparation of the attendance list of the persons authorised to participate in the Extraordinary General Meeting:

- 1) to submit the original copy of the power of attorney (or a set of the power of attorney documents) or a copy of the power of attorney notarised or officially certified, or its transcript prepared in compliance with applicable law; for the purpose of appending to the minutes,
- 2) to present a document that enables identification of the proxy holder.

The shareholder proxies who are not natural persons should additionally submit copies of documents which demonstrate the authorisation of the persons conferring the power of attorney to act on behalf of a shareholder, while at the same time presenting the original documents. The persons conferring the power of attorney should appear in the current or full excerpt from the relevant shareholder registry, from which the authorisation to act on behalf of the shareholder on the date of granting the power of attorney will follow.

If any of the documents demonstrating the authority to act on behalf of a shareholder is prepared in a language other than Polish, such a document must have appended to it its translation into the Polish language prepared by a certified translator.

Proxy powers conferred in the electronic form:

Proxy powers conferred in the electronic form do not require a secure electronic signature verified with a valid qualified certificate.

The Bank must be notified of the proxy powers conferred in the electronic form through employment of electronic communication means in the form of information sent to e-mail address of wza@pkobp.pl, while making every effort to enable effective verification of the power of attorney validity.

The information on the conferring of the power of attorney should include the content of such granted power of attorney. The power of attorney in the electronic form that incorporates the elements specified above may also be prepared in writing and sent to the indicated e-mail address in the PDF format.

Moreover, the notification on conferring the power of attorney should specify the telephone numbers and e-mail addresses of the shareholder and of their proxy, which the Bank can use to contact the shareholder and their proxy.

Together with the notification on the conferring of the power of attorney in the electronic form, the shareholder who is not a natural person will send the following in the PDF format the scan of an excerpt from the relevant register in which the principal is registered.

The persons conferring the power of attorney on behalf of a shareholder who is not a natural person should appear in the current or full excerpt from the relevant shareholder registry, from which the authorisation to act on behalf of the shareholder on the date of granting the power of attorney would follow.

If any of the sent documents demonstrating the capacity to act on behalf of a shareholder is prepared in a language other than Polish, such a document must be complemented with a scan of its translation into the Polish language prepared by a certified translator.

If the shareholder confers the proxy powers in the electronic form, the proxy holder is required, at the preparation of the attendance list of the persons authorised to participate in the Extraordinary General Meeting, to present a document that enables identification of the proxy holder.

The Bank will take appropriate action for the purpose of identifying a shareholder and a proxy in order to verify the validity of the powers of attorney granted in the electronic form. Such a verification may involve in particular a response question in the electronic or telephone call form addressed to the shareholder or proxy with the aim of confirming the fact of the power of attorney being granted and its scope. In case of any doubt, the Bank may undertake further actions with the aim of verifying the validity of the powers of attorney granted in the electronic form and the identity of the shareholder and proxy. The Bank will deem the failure to provide a response to a question asked in the course of the verification process as a case of failure to verify the power of attorney, which will constitute grounds for the refusal of admission of a proxy to participate in the Extraordinary General Meeting.

In the case of any emerging doubts about the empowerment of a person to act on behalf of a shareholder, the Management Board of the Bank reserves the right to demand the presentation, at the preparation of the attendance list of the persons authorised to participate in the Extraordinary General Meeting, of the original documents which corroborate the empowerment of a given person to act on their behalf.

A Bank Management Board member or an employee of the Bank may be proxies of a shareholder at the Extraordinary General Meeting.

If a proxy at the Extraordinary General Meeting is a Bank Management Board member, a member of the Supervisory Board of the Bank, Bank's employee or an employee of the Bank's subsidiary or a member of any of its governing bodies, that person's power of attorney may confer on them the power to represent limited to only one general meeting. Such a proxy is obliged to disclose to the shareholder any circumstances indicative of the presence of the possibility of occurrence of a conflict of interest. The Bank will be barred from granting any subsequent power of attorney in such a case. Such a proxy shall vote in accordance with the instructions provided by the shareholder.
